CASE NO. 03-48631-DML-7

ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR WANT OF PROSECUTION

Before the court is Debtor's Motion For New Trial (the "Motion"). On July 13, 2009, the court entered an Order to Show Cause, which ordered Debtor to appear before the court on August 5, 2009. After several unsuccessful attempts, a United States Marshal served Debtor the Order to Show Cause on August 4, 2009.

Debtor then failed to appear on August 5, 2009, and the court sanctioned her in the amount of $1,200 for the U.S. Trustee's fees and $5,000 for contempt of court. Debtor filed the Motion on August 12, 2009, by which Debtor requests the court to reconsider its rulings of August 5, 2009.

The court held a hearing (the "Hearing") on the Motion on September 16, 2009. At the Hearing, Debtor requested a 30-day continuance, which the court granted. The court instructed Debtor to schedule the continued hearing no later than October 16, 2009, if Debtor wished to press the Motion. Debtor did not schedule the continued hearing before that date. The court finds that insufficient action has been taken to obtain the relief sought. It is, therefore,

ORDERED that the Motion is DENIED.
